Tasks set	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Research and make detailed notes on the origins of the Cold War to prepare for an essay to answer the question: To what extent would you agree that the origins of the Cold War lay in WWI?</li><li>2. Explain how the Wars of the Roses would affect the rule of the first Tudor King Henry VII.</li></ol>
How this links to the exam specification	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Unit 1 of the Cold War course begins with the breakdown of relations between the Allies at the end of WWII. The origins of the Cold War however can be traced back at least to the Bolshevik revolution of 1917 so this study is to gain essential background knowledge about the long term causes.</li><li>2. Unit 1 of the Tudors course begins with Henry VII's consolidation of power; an understanding of the Wars of the Roses is essential background to this topic.</li></ol>
How to complete the task:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Use the relevant chapter from the PDF, watch the episode of the CNN documentary and listen to the episodes of the podcast which are recommended under 'Resources'. Using these resources produce either notes, a detailed mind-map or timeline of between three-four sides of A4 to explain the long term causes of the Cold War between 1917-44.</li><li>2. Read the PDF through. Underline in pencil any words you don't understand and look them up. Read through the PDF again. Complete the table on page 16.</li></ol>

	Use your answers and examples from the table to write a report entitled:          “What lessons should a king learn from the Wars of the Roses?” 2 sides of A4.
